Clubhouse International Earns GuideStar's Platinum Seal of Transparency

New York, NY, February 3, 2020 — Clubhouse International earned the Platinum Seal of Transparency, the highest level of recognition offered by GuideStar, the world's largest source of nonprofit information.

Clubhouse International is proud to demonstrate its commitment to giving donors meaningful data to evaluate nonprofit performance. "We are excited to earn this distinction so we can better share a wealth of up-to-date organizational metrics with our supporters as well as GuideStar's immense online audience, which includes donors, grantmakers, our peers, and the media," said Executive Director, Joel D. Corcoran.

To reach the Platinum level, Clubhouse International added extensive information to its GuideStar Profile, including in-depth financial information; qualitative information about goals, strategies, and capabilities; and quantitative information about results and progress toward its mission.

"I encourage you to visit our Profile to see what we're all about," added Mr. Corcoran. "We're thrilled that our Platinum Seal of Transparency and the associated benefits help us better communicate our organization's exciting initiatives on a global scale."

CLUBHOUSE INTERNATIONAL is a global nonprofit working to end social and economic isolation for people with mental illness. It is a membership organization with 304 Clubhouses and 22 coalitions operating in 30 countries on six continents.

As the international body, Clubhouse International assures quality of its Clubhouse rehabilitation programs via training, networking and a rigorous accreditation process, and partners with start-up groups to open new Clubhouses. Clubhouse International is a global advocate, raising awareness about the prevalence and impact of mental illness and educating constituents worldwide on how Clubhouses are a critical part of the solution.

About 100,000 people with mental illness will access Clubhouses this year through their local Clubhouse.

GUIDESTAR Nonprofit Profiles - guidestar.org, is the world's largest source of nonprofit information, connecting people and organizations with data on 2.7 million current and formerly IRS-recognized nonprofits. Each year, more than 10 million people, including individual donors, grant-makers, government officials, academic researchers, and the media, use GuideStar data to make informed decisions about the social sector. The Profiles are populated directly from nonprofits, the IRS, and other partners in the nonprofit sector. GuideStar data is available on more than 200 philanthropic websites and 5 applications like AmazonSmile, Facebook, and Network for Good.
